

ARCHITECTURAL STANDARDS

Back to Homepage

Each home must contain a minimum of three thousand square feet. The site, architectural, landscape plan and color selections must be approved by the Architectural Review Committee as prescribed in the Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions.

The desired architectural style for the community is the “Maine Shingle” or “New England” Style as depicted in the rendering finished in natural materials and colors.